Attilio Ferrara

Attilio Ferrara's unlimited connection to the universal source allows him to receive every frequency and to make it perceptible to others. He has the ability to transform everything tangible into an arbitrary high vibration. For several years he has been passing on this universal knowledge as an ambassador to show people a possible path to the balancing of body, soul and spirit. In accordance with his task, he provides his strength at the service of nature, in which all participate.

As an ambassador and healer he passes on his knowledge around the world in seminars and on his journeys. The essence of his message, to live the unconditional love, enables everyone to unfold on all levels of spiritual growth.

His clear, powerful message is the recognition of universal knowledge and is independent of all religions.

The frequency products are not medicines and do not replace a medical doctor or alternative practitioner. However, they can positively influence medical treatment and its course. If statements about individual products—which suggest certain of their effects—are used, it is explicitly stated that these statements do not claim any effects in the scientifically proven sense. These are always observations and statements from enthusiastic users. An effect of the offered products is not guaranteed.

5 Elements Attilio Water unmistakable and unique through the element LOVE

Through the original divine order and stability of the highly vibrating frequency, the inner structure of the primordial spring water is restored. Visibly and perceptibly a neutral pulsating field is generated, which holds the living origin of the original source indefinitely.
